

Nomos, Postcoloniality, Spatial Justice (III): Legacies of the Nomos of Apartheid

A series of seminars and workshops funded by the British Academy Newton Advanced Fellowship Scheme and hosted by the Westminster Law and Theory Lab, University of Westminster.

BRITISH ACADEMY

for the humanities and social sciences

UNIVERSITY OF WESTMINSTER

19 March 2019, 1.00 pm – 2.30 pm

Room 2.01, Westminster Law School, University of Westminster
4-12 Little Titchfield Street, London W1W 7UW

Pitfalls and Possibility in Philippi: Reflections on Sustainable Urban Development and Spatial Justice After Apartheid

Philip Briel

Philip Briel is a practising architect, urban-designer and artist. He obtained a B.Arch. degree from the University of Cape Town as well as an M.Sc. degree in Sustainable Urban Development from the University of Oxford.

Philip Briel Architects, practise in both the cities of Cape Town (SA) and Oxford (UK). The nature of the projects varies widely and ranges from township regeneration in the Western Cape to master planning of a rural estates in Oxfordshire.

Apart from practising as an architect, Briel has been involved in various social and environmental initiatives with a particular focus on bio-diversity, marine conservation and rural job creation projects.

To register please follow the link. The event is free but places are limited.

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/urban-development-spatial-justice-after-apartheid-pitfalls-possibility-tickets-58288120337>

Contact: Julia Chryssostalis at J.Chryssostalis@Westminster.ac.uk